Phishing Email Responses

Email	Trustworthy (T) or Suspicious (S)	Reason
Example 1	Trustworthy	The Email Address of the sender looks authentic. Also, sender name matched with the name in email address.
Example 2	Suspicious	The Email Address doesn't look authentic. Secondly, the sender didn't include the recipient name. Thirdly, there are a lot of improper grammar usage. Finally, the sender included unsolicited attachment.
Example 3	Trustworthy	The email provides information without asking for sensitive information. It doesn't ask the recipient to client on an URL. The email doesn't create an artificial sense of urgency. Finally, the email address looks authentic.
Example 4	Suspicious	The sender created an artificial sense of urgency by demanding huge amount of money within 24 hours. The email contains many misspelled words and improper grammar.
Example 5	Suspicious	The sender didn't include the recipient name. Secondly, the email address of the sender doesn't look authentic. Finally, he attached an unsolicited attachment.
Example 6	Suspicious	The sender didn't include the recipient name. Secondly, the name of the sender in email address doesn't match name mentioned at the end. The email contains a lot of improper grammar usage. Finally, the email contains an unsolicited attachment.
Example 7	Suspicious	The sender didn't include the recipient name. Secondly, the sender created an artificial sense of urgency and asked for a huge amount of money. Thirdly, email address doesn't match the email given at the end. Finally, the email contains a lot of improper grammar usage.
Example 8	Suspicious	The sender didn't include the recipient name. Secondly, the email address doesn't look authentic. Thirdly, the sender created an artificial sense of urgency by saying that all the transactions have been temporarily suspended. Finally, the URL mentioned in the email is not "https".

Example 9	Suspicious	The email asks the recipient to provide personal information. Secondly, the sender didn't include the recipient name. Thirdly, the email address doesn't look authentic. Also, there are a lot of misspelled words and improper grammar usage. Finally, the email involves a huge amount of money.
Example 10	Suspicious	The sender didn't include the recipient name. Secondly, the Email Address doesn't look authentic. Finally, amount mentioned at the top doesn't match amount mentioned in the body of email.